Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 229x152x20 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - THE POWER OF SEX is an entertaining and often startling book that clearly explains why sex, genders, and sexualities-once so relatively simple-are now more complicated and problematic than ever. We may still be male or female but we are also increasingly intersex, transitioning, transgender, transsexual, she-males, or ambisexual; we may still be heterosexual or homosexual, but we are also increasingly bisexual, asexual, egosexual, polysexual, or pansexual, with paraphilias abounding. Sex, in short, is a maze, minefield and muddle, with the old 2-by-2 model of male/female, gay/straight all but gone from our personal lives, laws, norms, mores and the mass media. While detailing the revolutionary transformation of our sexual identities and behaviors-including the dizzying array of forms sexual pleasure now comes in-THE POWER OF SEX clearly elucidates why almost everything to do with the genitals and sex is problematic and hotly debated today: marriage, prostitution, pornography, nudity, homosexuality, masturbation, contraception, abortion, paraphilias, circumcision, divorce, clitoridectomies genital cosmetic surgeries, sexual identity-even what constitutes sex-to name only a few topics of controversy related to sex. Through revelatory...
